

EMPTY ATLAS

BIO

"How have I not heard this band before now?"
Famous first words of every Empty Atlas fan.

For almost a decade, the Mississippi melodic indie rock act has assembled a trove of uncommon songs about common ground.

Where 2022's soaring anthem "Matador" highlights hope and persistence, their newest single "Belong" reflects on the unity of loss and leaning on friends.

Heavy concepts, for sure, but coated in Empty Atlas's unmistakable blend of dynamic rock, hooky melodies and thoughtful lyrics.

Already, the song is earning fans and accolades internationally, including a semifinalist spot in the Unsigned Only Music Competition.

For fans of Manchester Orchestra, Thrice, Death Cab for Cutie and The Killers.

Empty Atlas is:
Micah Smith (lead vocals and rhythm guitar)
Alex Ingram (bass and keys)
Brennan Michael White (lead guitar and vocals)
Robert Currie Hansford (drums)
